

Event Organisers Guide

1.2 - What discipline?

What discipline or disciplines?

Usually an event will be established at a national level before applying for international FEI status. The discipline/s catered for will therefore be established. However the FEI always welcomes proposals to extend the number of disciplines hosted at an event. An FEI event can incorporate competitions catering for one or more of the official FEI disciplines:

- Jumping - click here for more information about this discipline and here for a video about jumping
- Dressage - click here for more information about this discipline and here for a video about dressage
- Para Dressage - click here for more information about this discipline and here for a video about para dressage
- Eventing - click here for more information about this discipline and here for a video about eventing
- Vaulting - click here for more information about this discipline and here for a video about vaulting
- Endurance - click here for more information about this discipline and here for a video about endurance
- Driving - click here for more information about this discipline and here for a video about driving
- Para Driving - click here for more information about para driving
- Reining - click here for more information about this discipline and here for a video about reining

Any questions?

If you have any questions regarding organising FEI competitions or would like further advice not available through this guide please contact your National Federation or the relevant FEI department here.

Unique solution ID: #1094

Author: Tim

Last update: 2021-01-15 16:17